Ladakh

Dear Sir/Ma'am

Greetings from OxyHolidays

Ladakh is a region administered by India as a union territory and constitutes an eastern portion of the larger Kashm has been the subject of a dispute between India and Pakistan since 1947 and India and China since 1959. Ladakh is the Tibet Autonomous Region to the east, the Indian state of Himachal Pradesh to the south, both the Indian-admini territory of Jammu and Kashmir and the Pakistan-administered Gilgit-Baltistan to the west, and the southwest corne across the Karakoram Pass in the far north. It extends from the Siachen Glacier in the Karakoram range to the north Great Himalayas to the south. The eastern end, consisting of the uninhabited Aksai Chin plains, is claimed by the In Government as part of Ladakh, but has been under Chinese control.
